

NORTON SOUND FISHERMEN:

You may be eligible for federal disaster assistance from the 1998 Western Alaska Fisheries Disaster
if you are one of the following:

- ♦ Commercial Salmon Fishing Permit Holder for the Norton Sound area, who held and utilized the permit in 1999.
OR
- ♦ Commercial Salmon Fishing Crew License Holder who worked on a fishing vessel in Norton Sound in 1999 for a commercial salmon fishing permit holder with a permit to fish in Norton Sound in 1999.
OR
- ♦ Cannery Worker/ Processor who worked for a salmon cannery/processing plant in Norton Sound during the 1999 fishing season OR worked for a salmon cannery/processing plant in Norton Sound 1998 and was unemployed in 1999 due to the disaster.
OR
- ♦ Subsistence user in 1999 who caught or received less than half the salmon you or your family usually eats because of the low salmon runs AND you are a resident of one of the following communities: Nome, Solomon, Teller, Brevig Mission, Golovin, or White Mountain.

To apply, call 1-888-388-3473,
Monday - Friday 10am - 4pm

This is an income-based program;
proof of 1998 income will be required for application

*Application approval is based on State Regulation 6 AAC 94.100 - 6.94.180

Please call the helpline before submitting any documentation to the disaster office or for assistance completing the paperwork.

Application Deadline is October 16, 2000